Afternoon Session.

The board reconvened at 1:30, all of the members being present except MacBain.

Newton Peck, the newly-appointed horticultural commissioner, addressed the board, stating that the limit of three days allowed him each week for the performance of his duties would hardly be sufficient for good results.

He was advised to render reports from time to time and the board would then be better able to judge in the matter.

D. R. Stafford addressed the board, stating that the annual flower carnival would be held in this city May 8th, which it was desired to make a county event. He then introduced Mrs. Earl Baird who asked that the committee be permitted to use the rotunda of the courthouse for its flower exhibition.

It was ordered on motion of Brown, seconded by Casey, that the request be granted and the courthouse be lighted and that visitors be given access to all parts of the building.

Surveyor Neuman stated that the Crescent Construction Company had failed to enter into contract to construct the retaining wall at Belmont for which at a previous meeting it had tendered a bid of $891, and would forfeit its bond of 10 percent of that amount.

It was ordered, on motion of Thompson, seconded by Brown, that the District Attorney take steps to have the road records of the county cleaned up.

The application of Mahoney Bros. for an extension of time on their La Honda road contract was taken up. The Surveyor stated that he was already imposing a fine on the contractors of $25 per day for their failure to have the work completed according to the specified time. The matter was referred to the District Attorney.

Attorney John F. Davis presented a bond of $10,000 for owners of Glenwood Park in the Second township, and asked that that amount be accepted in lieu of $20,000 as specified at the last meeting.

The sureties were acceptable to the board and the bond was approved on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis.

The District Attorney suggested that an ordinance be adopted requiring that auto drivers engaged in the business of common carrying be required to give a bond for the protection of their patrons. He was directed to prepare such an ordinance for the board's consideration.

Chairman Francis addressed the board in reference to Mrs. Mary Nevis of Halfmoon Bay, who is unable to earn her livelihood. It was recommended that $52 be appropriated to pay the cost of her transportation to her former home. This action was taken on motion of Brown, seconded by Casey.

Surveyor Neuman presented the following plans and specifications for road and bridge construction:

For a reinforced concrete retaining wall along Schmoll street at Belmont.

GYMNASIUM COMMITTEE ASKS HELP FROM SCHOOLS

The Horace Hawes Gymnasium committee met with the trustees of the grammar school Tuesday evening and discussed ways and means for keeping up the gymnasium during the coming year. It was shown that over one hundred young men, young ladies and boys and girls were enjoying the work under the guidance of a competent instructor. The expenses average about $50 monthly, which amount the management had been able to secure from entertainments and contributions. In the discussion it was brought out that the attendance was largely composed of boys and girls of the highschool and grammar school, which fact justified the committee in asking assistance from the schools. The grammar school trustees promised to help out and it was assured that the highschool board would do likewise. With these contributions and a possible donation from the city council, the committee was assured a successful year for the gymnasium.

His death was sudden and unexpected.

S. P. Will Bring Thousands.

Within the next few days, the Southern Pacific Company is under contract to handle special train and car movement that will bring over 15,000 visitors to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco. To move these people, 104 specials will be required, these being distributed through the El Paso, Ogden and Portland gateways.

Miss Marguerite Muller was tendered a jolly surprise party Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Muller on Stambaugh street. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and games and a splendid supper was served to the guests.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

THIS POSSIBLY MEANS YOU.

Undoubtedly there is a world of wisdom in the trite axiom, "the Lord helps him who helps himself." And undoubtedly this is as true of communities as of individuals. In these days of community competition, no city can hope to progress without the united support of its members in the furtherance of every public enterprise.

Unquestionably no one thing yet suggested will do more to place before the many visitors who will be attracted to this section the attractions of this city as a residential district that the Floral Festival, an occasion which will do much to exploit the splendid attractions of San Mateo County as a home site. If, however, the affair is to be productive of the results desired, it must have the united support of the community. And this of necessity means something more than good wishes.

If those in charge of the work are to secure the best results, they must be provided with means for the work. This is the one great opportunity for the display of our attractions and we cannot afford to be niggardly in our support of the enterprise. Those in charge of the work should be provided with ample funds, and to this end it is necessary that each individual should do his or her share and do that promptly. Don't wait for the committee to hunt you up, you can tust as well hunt up the committee.

COUNTY'S FLORAL PRODUCTS GREAT EXPOSITION FEATURE

Much has been said and written about San Mateo county's exhibit at the great Exposition now being held in San Francisco. Taking all things into consideration we believe that San Mateo county will be one of the counties which will receive the most advertising before the Exposition is over. In the California building most of the sections of the State group all of their products or natural resources. San Mateo county however, will show only a map of the county, but flanking and surrounding that map are banks of the choicest of flowers, flowers that are grown here and replenished every day. In he Palace of Horticulture San Mateo county is represented by the most complete exhibit of the Exposition, the orchid display of the McRorie, McLaren nursery of San Mateo. In the Palace of Education there will soon be a display of the hand work of the San Mateo county schools. The varied industries of San Mateo,, South San Francisco and Redwood City are exhibited in the places belonging to the particular class of work manufactured. Moving pictures of the beauty spots and industrial activities will soon be shown. Tourists are transported at nominal cost in comfortable automobiles all over our county and on May 14th the Commissioners will probably take all of the boys and girls of the county to the Exposition as their guests, a feat which will give no end of advertisement. Taking it all in all, San Mateo county is holding up its end right royally.

Old-Time Dances Revived.

Chas. Jacobus in the times gone by was eagerly sought by dancers near and far because of his ability to call out directions in the quadrilles and lancers. The knowledge of these dances is almost a forgotten art, but Charley is long on memory. His services were accordingly requested in Palo Alto last Tuesday night, and he gave the residents of the College City a taste of some of the good old dances that were dances.

John Ockerman, who died at San Mateo last week, was well-known in and around Woodside where he had resided since 1864. In the early days he pre-empted a piece of land on the mountain brow and there he lived in contentment and happiness for over fifty years. Mr. Ockerman was a hard working, honest man and good neighbor. While his life was uneventful yet he experienced some thrilling times in the mountains in the early days. Mr. Ockerman was highly esteemed by his associates for his robust honesty and uprightness of character. Few men were more honorable than he and none more patriotic.

Many slips were prepared and all was in readiness to proceed with the work when to their astonishment they found it was impossible to do so as the highway had not been definitely mapped out between Beresford and Belmont, let alone completed.

feeling of the speaker find full expression in a voice of rare sweetness. Through his interpretation of the Negro dialect poems, the quaint picturesqueness of the Negro nature is portrayed.

John Rotschild, the Atherton capitalist, has compromised the suit brought against him some time ago by Antone Lescu for $50,550. By the terms of the compromise Rothschild pays Lescu the sum of $7000 and the latter in turn dismisses the suit. On April last, while Lescu, then employed in the local French laundry, was walking along the highway beyond Atherton, he was run into by an automobile driven by Rothschild and thrown heavily to the ground. As a result of the accident, the complaint in the suit charges that Lescu will be permanently crippled in both legs and would be unable, during the rest of his life, to do any work whatever. Sullivan, Sullivan and Theodore Roche represented Lescu, while Lilienthal, McKnistry and Raymond appeared for Rothschild.

Luigi Broggi, after an illness extending over a period of nearly a year, passed away at his home on Oak Grove avenue on March 17th. In May, 1914, he suffered a slight stroke of paralysis and receiving subsequent strokes was compelled to take to his bed five months ago. The deceased was a native of Italy, aged 75 years. Mr. Broggi came to Menlo Park in 1869 to work for Mr. Larko, who at that time owned the Macdonough ranch and was engaged in rasing silk worms, having established a silk factory on the property. Mr. Broggi being a gardener, was employed in raising mulberry trees on which the silk worms feed. The enterprise failed and Mr. Broggi became an assistant gardener at the old Atherton home in 1870. Some time later one of the Atherton girls married the late Major J. L. Rathbone, who established a palatial home on a portion of the Atherton domain, now the Payne place. The Major engaged Mr. Broggi as gardener and he remained there until he retired some ten years ago, having acquired a competency on which he lived in contentment during his declining years. A solemn high mass was celebrated in the Church of the Nativity at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Broggi is survived by his wife and two brothers, Guiseppi Broggi of this place and John Broggi, residing in Italy Mr. Broggi was an honest, upright man, beloved by his neighbors and all who knew him. The interment was in Holy Cross cemetery.

The remains of Thomas Lathrop Murray, who died at the St. Francis hospital in San Francisco at an early hour on Wednesday morning, arrived here on the 10 o'clock train yesterday morning for burial. The body was taken to the Church of the Nativity where a solemn requiem high mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of the deceased. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, where rest the remains of the deceased's parents. Thomas Murray was born in 1865 within the site of the old St. Dennis Church near the Spring Valley lake Here he grew to manhood and for a time attended the local grammar school. Early in life he began his career as a railroad employe, first starting as a brakeman and afterwards a baggage man. The latter position he held for nearly thirty years when he was pensioned by the Southern Pacific Company. The deceased was named after the late Thomas Lathrop, an ex-sheriff of this county who was an old friend of the Murray family in the early days of the county. The deceased was a whole-souled, genial man, a great favorite with his friends and popular with all. He was probably one of the best known men in the State. Mr. Murray leaves to mourn his death his widow, Alice C. Murray of San Francisco, and three brothers—James C. Murray who for a number of years was in business in Palo Alto, William J. and John J. Murray—all of whom live in Stanford Park.

He left her with two little children. The husband and wife appeared to be on good terms, and she has been unable to find him ever since.

YOUNG CRIMINALS SHOW LITTLE SIGN OF REMORSE

E. Rubine and Walter Fay, who robbed the M. Heller home at Atherton some weeks ago, were sentenced by Judge Buck in the Superior Court on Thursday. Rubine was sent to San Quentin for a year and Fay to the Preston Reform school to remain until he is 21 years of age. He is now under 18. Rubine is just past 21. The young men secured an entrance to the building and with an ax broke open the trunks and removed articles of value. They were caught by Night Watchman Collins with the goods in their possession when passing through Redwood City during the night. The fact that they had $18 in their possession before the commission of the crime and the further fact that the young men sohwed no sign of remorse or repentance militated against them. The judge was at first inclined to let them go on probation but their apparent indifference compelled him to pass sentence.

No More Sunday Funerals.

On and after April 4th, 1915, Sunday funerals will not be admitted to any of the cemeteries in and aronnd Colma. Bodies will not be received, interred or cremated on Sunday, unless it is necessary to comply with health laws. All the cemetery owners agreed upon this proposition at a recent meeting held in San Francisco. Mount Olivet cemetery sent a written notice to all the local undertakers to tsat effect yesterday. For a number of years Holy Cross cemetery at Colma barred Sunday funerals, only where it was absolutely necessary.

LOCAL FORESTERS TO ENTERTAIN VISITORS

City Council Joins With Court Madrone in Invitation to Supreme Delegates

Unless there is serious failure in present plans, and the reputation of the men behind the movement for accomplishing things hardly permits of a supposition of this contingency, Redwood City is to be accorded the honor of entertaining the delegates to the Supreme Court of Foresters of America for at least one, and porbably two days during the coming summer. This means that between 400 and 500 representatives of this order from all sections of the United States, with at least an equal number of their families and friends, are to be given an opportunity to become acquainted with the attractions of this section as a residential and commercial district.

This was the announcement made to the city council at its meeting on Monday evening by G. J. Liguori and John J. Read, members of a committee of Court Madrone of this city, which has undertaken preliminary arrangements for what will probably prove the greatest opportunity which will be afforded to exploit the attractions of this section during the Exposition year. And, strange to say, the committee did not come before the council asking for financial aid in this extensive project. In fact, the committe announced that it had already been assurd of all the monetary support necessary to carry to successful completion this somewhat ambitious undertaking. As outlined to the council, the plan of the local organization, in which they have been assured of the support of the officers of the Grand Court of this State, is to secure from the Supreme Court, which will hold its session in San Francisco in August, an excursion of the representatives to this city at some convenient date, preferably the last Saturday in August, and to present to the visitors a program of attractions which will result in a majority of the visitors remaining over for a second day and thus securing an opportunity to visit the attractions surrounding the city. As now tentatively planned, the program to be prepared will be a rather ambitious one, including a public concert and dance, with automobile rides to the various attractive sections about the city. All that was asked of the trustees was that they give the invitation their official support and moral aid. That the project promised much of value to the city was immediately recognized by the trustees and every possible assistance was unanimously promised

CITY COUNCIL TRANSACTS MUCH IMPORTANT BUSINESS

Dates are Designated for a General Clean-Up Campaign.

All of the trustees were present at the regular meeting of the city council Monday evening, with the exception of Chairman Merrill, who was prevented from appearing by illness. In the absence of Chairman Merrill, the meeting was called to order by City Clerk Plump and Trustee Deleau was chosen to preside.

According to the reports of City Clerk Plump and Marshal Coleman, the total income of the city for the month amounted to $1655.24, derived from the various sources of income as follows:

Water rates	$1372.04
Water connections	160.00
Sewer connections	16.20
Miscellaneous licenses	22.00
Plumber's fees	20.00
Taxes	65.00

Poundmaster Shine reported that during the month he had taken up five horses, two cows and two dogs and had disposed of ten dog licenses.

Pound Master E. V. Shine, who has served the city in that capacity for several years, tendered his resignation, announcing that other engagements in the future prevented his devoting the necessary time to the duties of the office. On motion of Trustee Sampson the resignation was accepted to take effect immediately and A. W. Parsons was appointed to fill the vacancy.

W. P. Jamieson presented his bond as a master plumber under the provisions of the health ordinance and after investigation the bond was approved.

The ordinance introduced at the last meeting ratifying and approving the transfer of the street railway franchise on Chestnut street from Judge E. F. Fitzpatrick to the Redwood City Harbor Company was given its final reading and adopted. Under the provisions of the transfer the Harbor Company will be required to furnish a portion of the material necessary for the filling of the street in front of the city hall and to permit of a joint use of its tracks by other interests in the industrial section through which it runs.

Acting upon a request presented by D. R. Stafford, the council agreed to provide for a least a portion of the expense of the musical program to be provided as a part of th Floral festival to be held May 8th. While no definite sum was named, it appeared to be understood that the amount of this donation should not exceed $100.

At the request of Judge Seely, Superintendent Dickey and Chairman Tuchsen of the street committee were authorized to investigate plans necessary for the extension of the sewer in Jefferson street for a distance of about 300 feet. It was explained that sanihood of Judge Seely's residence were far from satisfactory and it is understood that unless the work is voluntarily done by interested property owners steps will be taken to compell the improvement.

The ordinance introduced at the last meeting designed to prevent erection of "spite fences" was given final passage, as was also the ordinance prohibiting the cutting, breaking or removal of trees and shrubs on the public streets. Under the latter law it will be a crime requiring severe punishment to cut or break blossoms from the flowering plants and trees planted along the streets during the past few years by the Park Commission.

With all technical questions cleared up final steps were taken in the preliminary proceedings for the ordering of the construction of concret curbs and sidewalks on the County Road. After approving plans and specifications submitted for the work by City Engineer Sears, the necessary resolutions of intention, which had been prepared by City Attorney Mansfield, were adopted and ordered published in the Times-Gazette.

At the suggestion of Trustee Sampson, the city will engage in another spring house cleaning, similar to the one which proved so satisfactory in its general results a year ago. In order that all may be spick and span for the annual Floral Festival, the dates for the general campaign against weeds and old tin cans has been fixed for April 23d 24th, and 26th. Trustee Deleau was requested to take charge of the campaign and endeavor to secure the cooperation of the Boy Scouts, the Woman's Club, the Board of Trade and other civic organizations.

SUCCESS OF FLORAL CARNIVAL ASSURED

United Support Promised for Redwood's Big Fete Day

If the spirit of boost counts for anything—and boost is the slogan to be reckoned with nowadays—May 8th is to be a red letter day in the history of Redwood City. May 8th is the date of Redwood City's Floral Carnival—and it is to be a Floral Carnival this year—one of the best and biggest events that the city has ever witnessed. At least this is to be judged from the enthusiasm manifested at the mass meeting held in the city hall Thursday evening.

Although the meeting was called upon decidedly short notice, there was a goodly attendance of prominent men and women of the city. And among those in attendance there was manifested an evidence of that get together spirit which leaves no doubt in the minds of those interested of the success of the undertaking. In fact, as the discussion progressed it easily became evident that the day will be one of much more pretentious entertainment than was at first proposed.

It was also made certain that the city will be thronged with interested visitors during the day. A communication presented by Mrs. Earl D. Baird set at rest all doubts as to the intended visit to this city on that day of the excursion visitors of the Cincinnatti Retail Grocers Association. These distinguished guests will arrive here shortly after noon and will probably spend several hours inspecting the attractions.

Reports presented by the finance committee indicated that so far they had met with flattering encouragement. The funds in hand and promised so far, however, are far from sufficient to provide for an entertainment on the scale desired and within the next few days it is planned to make a systematic canvass among those who are—or should be—most interested. Should the committee for any reason overlook anyone who desires a share in the good work, contributions to the funds may be left with P. A. Ryan, A. D. Walsh, M. J. Knox or Stafford Bros.

Committees to have charge of the various departments of the day's entertainment, as far as have been announced, are as follows:

Parade committee—J. E. Layng and P. A. Ryan.

Automobiles—Dr. G. B. Yount.

Children's committee — Mesdames Eva, Sheerin and Baker, and Miss Beeger.

Dance—Mesdames Thorpe and Harley Mansfield.

Chorus—O. M. Carrington.

Tableau—Mrs. Lesserman.

Music—P. A. Ryan, Wm. Jamieson, F. Polglase.

Advertising—J. J. Harrigan, J. V. Swift, D. E. O'Keefe, J. E. Harris

Finance—Mrs. H. C. Finkler, M. J. Knox, Mrs. F. P. Wentworth, G. P. Hull, A. D. Walsh, C. G. Landscheit and Dan Stafford.

Reception—A. J. Fromm, Jos. H. Nash, P. P. Chamberlain, R. F. Chilcott, Z. T. Thorning, Dr. G. B. Yount, Dr. N. C. Cummings, and Mesdames Nash, Shaw, Yount, Reed and Baker.

Chafleur's License Revoked

Joseph Dugan of San Francisco was arrested at Menlo Park last Friday by Traffic Officer Logan for speeding on the highway while under the influence of liquor. He was brought before Judge Seely on Monday and plead guilty. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and had his license revoked. He is a chauffeur and will not be able to secure a position for one year. Dugan spent two days in the county jail before he could secure the money to pay his fine. The sentence is fully approved by every citizen who believes in law and order.

APPELLATE COURT CONFIRMS COAST PROPERTY DECISION

The civil suit entitled George O. Rich against C. B. Smith, that was tried before Judge Buck a year ago and decided by him in favor of the plaintiff and which was appealed by Smith to the Appellate Court, was decided by the higher tribual on Thursday in favor of the plaintiff, that court confirming Judge Buck's decision. Judge Lennon wrote the opinion which was concurred in by his two associates, Judge Kerrigan and Judge Richards. Shortly after the fire in San Francisco, Rich and Smith, who are brother-in-laws, formed a copartnership to purchase the Wienke property and other lands in and around Moss Beach. The holdings were subdivided and a good portion of it sold, when the partners disagred. Rich brought a suit in partition. A referee was appointed by the court and the lands partitioned. The portion improved by Rich was awarded to him and the part improved by Smith was given him. Rich was given a judgment for $20,000, it being proven at the trial that he had advanced that sum for the benefit of the firm. Mr. Smith at once began his appeal to the higher court. After considerable difficulty the case was finally filed in the Appellate Court. Ross & Ross represented Mr. Rich, while Martin Stevens appeared for Smith. He was afterwards assisted in the appeal by R. P. Henshall of San Francisco. The case has been bitterly fought on both sides, there having been considerable feeling between the litigants shown at the trial of the case.
